

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Nominations are hereby invited for the School of Veterinary Medicine's Distinguished Service Award. This award honors individuals or organizations whose exemplary service to the school as volunteers, professionals or advocates has enriched the school's programs and enhanced its teaching, research and/or service missions.

AWARD CRITERIA

Consideration will be given to alumni or friends who have made major contributions of time, leadership, financial or promotional support to further the mission of the school. Emeriti are also eligible for consideration if the distinguished service contributions identified in the nomination occurred after retirement. The school includes departments, units, programs and Cooperative Extension. The School Awards and Honors Committee reviews the nominations and forwards its recommendation to the Dean for final selection.

NOMINATION FORM

The nomination form includes contact information, statements describing the nominee's service achievements, related contributions and major contributions and achievements. These statements should be specific and comprehensive, but no longer than the space provided.

Please save and send completed form to Megan Rott at mrott@ucdavis.edu, call for questions at 530-752-1384.
